Detailed Question Breakdown

Q1: Welcome! To start us off, could you tell me a little bit about yourself and your background?

Response Transcript: Hello, I am Babarvi and I am a grade 11 student. I have PCM as my subject but I hate physics just because I can't do it. It's not like I hate the subject. It's just that I hate the way I tackle it more over I am interested in listening to music, drawing, I like scrolling wheels and since the pretty long time I have been finding joy in getting bored. Thank you.

Q2: What would you say is your greatest professional strength, and how have you used it recently?

Response Transcript: Actually, I'm not in a state where I think about my professional strength and using it is a far job for me. Currently, I am just worried about my exams. Thank you.

Q3: Tell me about a time you faced a significant challenge at work. How did you overcome it?

Response Transcript: So a significant challenge that I faced at obviously my school was the time when I switched it because I had no friends and it was a complete new environment. Moreover the academic pressure was also a little too high but I was convinced by my parents to let it be and you know spend some time things will take their own course and they actually did. So I didn't actually contributed anything significantly but it happened.

Q4: Where do you see your career heading in the next three to five years?

Response Transcript: Not in next three but definitely in the next five years I see myself in a well-stablished position where I'll be working in some falling country and earning at least six carols per year. And that's it.

Q5: Finally, why are you interested in this position, and what unique value can you bring to the team?

Response Transcript: Actually, I don't know which position you are talking about, but as far as I am concerned with the value that I can bring in the team, it's my presence itself. It's of great significance. It would definitely help my sister to grow our project. Thank you so much.
